

---

Alanna Cherote 'Josie' Bio & Pics

Untitled Document

Alanna Cherote is a striking female solo artist, whose compelling sound and truthful expression has attracted both local and International attention. Her debut EP 'Universal Need' was recently released through MGM Australia, alongside publishing contracts with Centrifuge and Sparks in Canada. With an array of musical influences including Sheryl Crow, Johnny Cash, Lucinda Williams, Brandi Carlisle and the Beatles, Alanna successfully draws on their musical expression to distil a vocal style that is entirely unique. "Her voice is like a clear bell with depth and truth, her voice and sound have raised comparisons to The Velvet Underground, Chrissie Hynde, Tracy Chapman, Brandi Carlisle and Suzanne Vega to name a few." - The Manly Daily (Sept 2008) Her unique, natural talent are set to ensure a promising career which is rapidly unfolding. Evocative, heartfelt songs... that are emotional... well crafted and convincing... a soon to be discovered gem." Drum Media Magazine (April 2008)

Music Video Production

Music Video Clips